November 5 – Linda Lappe, CU Women’s Basketball Coach

A three-time first team Academic All-Big 12 honoree, Lappe graduated from CU with her bachelor's degree in business administration in 2002. She is a native of Burlington, Iowa, where she had a stellar prep career. An honorable mention Street & Smith's All-American, she graduated from Winfield High School with prep records in career points, steals, steals in a season, steals in a game, career assists, season assists, single game assists and a 110-3 career record. Lappe, who is in her third year at CU, explained that she feels good about the coming year; the team has good leadership with juniors and seniors on the team and the freshmen have really improved. Her formula for success: get the right players, empower them to be leaders, and instill pride and passion to restore the program with all players to graduate. CU went 21-14 this past season, advancing to the quarterfinals of the WNIT for a second year in a row.

November 12 – Isaias Braga, Boulder County Salvation Army

Isais Braga, a lieutenant with the salvation army, came to kick off the 2012 bell ringing season. Lt. Braga presented the origins of the Salvation Army in England, founded by William Booth in 1865. He went on to tell of how the Army came to the United States and has grown to over 120 countries world wide. The salvation Army center in Broomfield hosts a number of community activities, including after school programs for children as well as food and housing assistance for families in the Broomfield and Boulder area. Once again, Foothills Kiwanis club led the region in bell ringing fund raising and Lt. Braga presented President Pauluhn with the Bell trophy.
